- B Total Amount of Restitution: _____
- C Restitution not ordered (Check only one.):
- 1 ☐ For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(A).
  - 2 ☐ For offenses for which restitution is otherwise mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, restitution is not ordered because determining complex issues of fact and relating them to the cause or amount of the victims' losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim would be outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process under 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3)(B).
  - 3 ☐ For other offenses for which restitution is authorized under 18 U.S.C. § 3663 and/or required by the sentencing guidelines, restitution is not ordered because the complication and prolongation of the sentencing process resulting from the fashioning of a restitution order outweigh the need to provide restitution to any victims under 18 U.S.C. § 3663(a)(1)(B)(ii).

6. The defendant shall participate in a sexual specific evaluation or sex offender specific treatment, conducted by a sex offender treatment provider, as directed and approved by the Probation Office. The treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual specific evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing which may include polygraph, ABLE screening, and other types of testing, as approved by the Probation Office. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the Probation Office. When submitting to a polygraph exam, the defendant does not waive his or her Fifth Amendment rights, and the defendant's exercise of such rights will not give rise to a violation proceeding. The results of the polygraph examinations may not be used as evidence in Court to prove that a violation of community supervision has occurred, but may be considered in a hearing to modify release conditions and/or could initiate a separate investigation.

7. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, internet-capable device, or similar electronic device or have access to any online service without the prior approval of the Probation Office.

8. The defendant shall allow the installation of a computer and internet monitoring program and/or identify computer systems, internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access (except a computer owned by his employer and not located in his residence). The program(s) used will be designed to identify, for the probation office, the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or otherwise using any images or content of a sexual or otherwise inappropriate nature. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such monitoring services, based on the defendant's ability to pay, as deemed appropriate by the Probation Office. The defendant shall not attempt to remove or otherwise defeat such systems, and shall allow the Probation Office to examine such computer and receive data from it at any reasonable time.

9. The defendant shall advise anyone in his/her household that any computer in the household may be subject to computer monitoring.

10. The defendant is not to possess or use a computer, internet-capable device, or similar electronic device without the prior permission of the Probation Office. Any device previously mentioned should not be used to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. The defendant is prohibited from entering chat rooms, to send or receive "instant messages" or to send or receive email with attached electronic files through any electronic medium unless previously approved by the Probation Office. The defendant shall not utilize any sex-related telephone services, websites, or electronic bulletin boards.

11. The defendant shall disclose all account information relative to internet access, social networking, and email, including user names and passwords, to the Probation Office. The defendant shall also, if requested, provide a list of all software/hardware on his/her computer, as well as telephone, cable, or internet service provider billing records and any other information deemed necessary by the Probation Office to monitor the defendant's computer usage.

12. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information for purposes of monitoring their compliance with the imposed computer access/monitoring conditions, including, but not limited to, credit card bills, telephone bills, and cable/satellite television bills.

13. The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with children under the age of 18, except in the presence of a responsible adult who is aware of the nature of the defendant's background and current offense, and who has been approved by the Probation Office. The defendant shall not have any direct or indirect contact with the victim or victim's family while incarcerated and during his term of incarceration. Should the defendant have incidental contact with a child or the victim, the defendant is required to immediately remove himself from the situation and notify his/her probation officer.

14. The defendant shall consent to third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed upon him, unless excused by the probation officer. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity that may cause the defendant to come in direct contact with children, except under circumstances approved in advance by the supervising probation officer. In addition, the defendant shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause the defendant to come into direct contact with children, except under circumstances approved in advance by the defendant's probation officer. Contact is defined as any transaction occurring face to face, over the telephone, via mail, over the internet, and any third party communication.

15. Prior to accepting any form of employment, the defendant shall seek the approval of the Probation Office, in order to allow the Probation Office the opportunity to assess the level of risk to the community the defendant may pose if employed in a particular capacity.
